

Blessed

Roger Montgomery

This world is on a collision course
It is getting to be in a real mess
This kind of got me to thinking
I am so blessed to be blessed.

So many distractions in this world
No wonder so many are so stressed
Makes me appreciate all the more
I am so blessed to be blessed.

No use going it alone in life
Living a life of distress
Just appreciate the wonder of it all
We are so blessed to be blessed.

God loves all of us
And this is my greatest wish
Everyone would just take a look
At how blessed they are to be blessed.

No matter what your lot is in life
It could be better or worse is my guess
If only we would all realize
We are so blessed to be blessed.
