

Coming Soon

Roger Montgomery

Don't be so downhearted
Though the world may be full of gloom
There is hope on the horizon
Cause Jesus is coming soon.

We will have our day of rest
Life goes on beyond the tomb
We will see our loved ones again
Cause Jesus is coming soon.

People are forecasting evil
But there is more hope than doom
The world may be coming apart
But Jesus is coming soon.

He's coming for His bride
He's coming as a groom
She will be all dressed in white
Jesus is coming soon.

Tell everyone you know
Come while there is still room
It will happen in the twinkle of an eye
Jesus is coming soon.

Listen for the shout of a trumpet
It may sound like a sonic boom
People may get a wake-up call
Cause Jesus is coming soon.

Some people think they are ready
Some are and some just assume
We will find out on that day
Cause Jesus is coming soon.

The church is getting ready
Eternity is starting to bloom
Hope your life is in order
Cause Jesus is coming soon.
